

JEREMY PORTER AND THE TUCOS CANDY COATED CANNONBALL

Jeremy Porter and the Tucos - 2022 ONE SHEET

Jeremy Porter & The Tucos are a rock and roll band from Detroit, Michigan. They sound like guitars and whiskey, hooks and heartache, energy and passion. You'll find everything from Cheap Trick to Gram Parsons, Hüsker Dü to Uncle Tupelo, Merle Haggard to AC/DC on their turntables. The racket they make is a little bit of each. It's Detroit Rock and Roll, even if Detroit isn't quite ready for it.

Jeremy Porter grew up in Marquette, a small town in Michigan's upper peninsula, where he was a founding member of one of the UP's first punk bands -The Regulars. He moved to Detroit and tore through the `90s and `00s fronting bands like SlugBug, The OffRamps and Fidrych (as well as a solo stint) though 2 decades of recording and touring before forming The Tucos in 2010. Gabriel Doman (The Hotwalls) and Jake Riley (Big Shoals) round out the trio.

THE TUCOS HAVE:

- Released four full-length LPs, five 7"s, and a slew of contributions to comps.
- Toured the US and Canada multiple times - playing festivals, theaters, clubs, and corner bars from Boston to Houston, Colorado to Montréal, Minneapolis to Jacksonville, and all points between.
- Toured the UK in 2018, playing 9 shows in 9 nights, including two nights in London and a showcase at the Swansea (Wales) Fringe Festival.
- Become one of the go-to support acts for national acts coming through Detroit, opening for Soul Asylum, Lydia Loveless, Jesse Malin, Supersuckers, Beach Slang, Jesse Dayton, American Aquarium, Deadstring Brothers, Two Cow Garage, Whitey Morgan, LA Witch, Tim Barry, Old Man Markley and many more.

The Tucos fourth album Candy Coated Cannonball and the 3-CD collection Bottled Regrets: The First Ten years are available now on GTG Records and the band is on the road touring throughout the year.
